

Bachelor of Media / Bachelor of International Studies

Year 1 24 Units	Introduction to Media: Digital Revolutions	Critical Histories of the Image	Introduction to International Politics	Two from: Asia and the World or Europe Empire &amp; the World
	Broadcast: Television and Radio	Story/Technology: Writing Techniques	Introduction to Comparative Politics	or The Twentieth Century: A World in Turmoil
Year 2 Advanced Level 24 Units	Media Research Methods	Media Theory	Post Cold War: International Relations	International Studies Elective
	Media Policy Media Law	Global Media: Policies and Practices	Comparative Politics	International Studies Elective
Year 3 Advanced Level 24 Units	Media Democracies and E Participation	Professional Practice	International Studies Core Topic	International Studies Elective
	Screens Special Topic: Asian Screen Media	Media Elective	International Studies Elective	International Studies Elective
Year 4 Advanced Level 24 Units	Media Elective or Humanities and Social Science Course	Media Elective or Humanities and Social Science Course	Humanities and Social Sciences Course	Humanities and Social Sciences Course
	Media Elective or Humanities and Social Science Course	Media Elective or Humanities and Social Science Course	Humanities and Social Sciences Course	Humanities and Social Sciences Course

MEDIA*INTERNATIONAL STUDIES