The Economic Society Prize in Level 2 Bachelor of Economics

Rules

Establishment

The Prize was established by the University as a result of an offer from the South Australian Branch of the Economic Society of Australia to provide an annual prize in Level 2 Economics for the degree of Bachelor of Economics.

Value

The Prize shall consist of a cash prize of $500 plus 2 years of full membership of the Economic Society of Australia (SA Branch) with subscriptions to both journals published by the Society.

Eligibility

To be eligible for the Prize, recipients must be:-

- enrolled on a full time basis;
- undertaking a Level 2 course in the Bachelor of Economics program at the University of Adelaide in the year for which the Prize is awarded.

Selection of Candidate

The Head, School of Economics (or nominee) will award the Prize to the best performing Bachelor of Economics student as determined by the highest average grade for that degree's Level 2 core courses, provided that in the opinion of the Head of School the candidate is of sufficient merit.

Variations

The University may vary the rules from time to time in a manner consistent with the University's legal obligations and policies.
